(B) The proposed buyer is YB Cosmetics, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. Its address is 12840 Leyva Street, Norwalk, California 90650.

(C) The property to be sold is all of the Debtor's right, title and interest in or to the following (collectively, "Assets"):

(i) all Inventory and work in process ("WIP"); (ii) all accounts receivable; (iii) all equipment and supplies used in connection with the Business; (iv) all Intellectual Property, including Trademarks and Seller's website and URLs; (v) all product registrations; (vi) all computer equipment and trade booths; (vii) all interests of Seller in the executory contracts to be assumed as described further below; (viii) specified additional assets (warehouse racking, conveyor systems, scales, filling and packing stations, packing and shipping supplies, televisions, photography and video equipment, credit-card clearing accounts, advertising, marketing and promotional materials relating to the business, including all social media pages and assets used in connection with the business, and electronic marketing collateral and brand digital content and assets); (ix) all deposits and prepaid expenses relating to the foregoing items; (x) all documents and business records relating to the foregoing items; (xi) all goodwill associated with the foregoing items; (xi) all claims and causes of action, including all rights under warranties, indemnities and similar rights against third parties, in each case relating to the foregoing items; and (xii) any and all avoidance actions arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code relating to the foregoing items or suppliers of the foregoing items (collectively, the "Assets").

The proposed executory contracts to be assumed and assigned to Purchaser are identified in the attached Exhibit B. Pursuant to the terms of the parties' agreement, the Purchaser will identify not later than 5 business days prior to the Closing (as defined in the agreement) which, if any, of the contracts listed in Exhibit B will be assumed by the Purchaser.

(D) The terms and conditions of the proposed sale are set forth in a detailed “Asset Purchase Agreement” appended to the Motion as Exhibit A. The basic business terms, including the price and all contingencies, can be summarized as follows:

- Except as noted below, the sale is subject only to standard contractual conditions precedent, including without limitation the entry of an order (“Approval Order”) of the Bankruptcy Court approving the sale, which such order shall have become non-appealable either by the expiration of time or the affirmance on appeal after the exhaustion of all available appeals. The only non-standard contingencies are (i) the negotiation and execution by Debtor, Purchaser and lessor of a mutually acceptable “access agreement” with the Debtor’s landlord, as more particularly described in the Asset Purchase Agreement and (ii) Purchaser shall have entered into an employment agreement with Pauline Youngblood Toth on terms acceptable to her in her sole discretion.
- The sale will close within five business days after all such conditions are satisfied.
- The purchase price is Fifty Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($50,000.00) paid at closing, plus the possibility of two additional “Deferred Payments” due on March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024, calculated as a percentage of the revenue earned by Purchaser from the distribution and sale of skin care products (the “Business”) during the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which the Deferred Payments are to be made, respectively. The percentage varies from zero percent (0.00%) to two and one-half percent (2.5%), depending on whether the Purchaser’s revenue earned in the applicable prior year totals more than specified dollar amounts. Those revenues must be at least $5,800,000 and $7,000,000 in those two years, respectively, to qualify for any Deferred Payment. The Purchaser and its affiliates intend to invest up to approximately $500,000 into the Business and to leverage their experience in the luxury and beauty industry and their shared resources for advertising, marketing, purchasing and inventory management to improve the revenue, operations and profitability of the Business post-closing. Based on the foregoing, and acknowledging that there are no assurances, the Purchaser and the Debtor believe there is a reasonable possibility that additional consideration will be paid to the estate over the next two years.

(E) Although the Debtor believes that the estate’s interests in the Assets to be sold are unencumbered by any third-party lien, claim or interest, the Purchaser has conditioned its willingness to buy the Assets upon the inclusion in the Approval Order of provisions declaring the sale to be free and clear of liens, claims or interests. Therefore, this Motion requests such relief.

(F) The proposed sale is NOT subject to higher and better bids. Previously, the Debtor attempted to sell of substantially all of its assets in January and February 2022 through an auction in connection with an agreement with a stalking-horse buyer. The Debtor marketed the assets and no other interested buyer (other than the stalking-horse buyer) emerged. The Court approved the sale to the stalking-horse buyer at the sale hearing on February 15, 2022. However, prior to the

1 entry of the order approving the sale, the stalking-horse buyer exercised its rights under its Asset
2 Purchase Agreement to back out of the sale.

3 (G) The estate (and/or the reorganized debtor, if its plan is confirmed) will receive all of
4 the cash proceeds specified above plus the Deferred Payments to the extent generated. The Debtor
5 has not retained any broker in connection with the transaction and does not anticipate incurring
6 any material costs in connection with the closing of the sale, other than the fees of its duly
7 appointed chapter 11 counsel, which will be paid by the estate only in accordance with the usual fee
8 application and approval proceedings.

9 (H) No authorization is sought to pay a commission.

10 (I) The possible tax consequences to the estate of the sale have not yet been analyzed, but
11 the book value of the assets being sold is substantially greater than the sale price, so the Debtor
12 assumes without investigation or analysis that there will be no taxable gain from the transaction.

13 (J) The Debtor and YB Cosmetics, LLC also seek findings that the proposed sale and YB
14 Cosmetics, as the purchaser, satisfy the requirements and protections under 11 U.S.C. § 362(m)
15 and (n).

16 (K) If the OST Application is granted, you will be advised by separate written notice of the 17 deadline by which you must file and serve any objection to the sale you might wish to file. If the 18 OST Application is not granted, the deadline for the filing and service of your written objection
19 will be April 26, 2022. Your failure to timely file and serve a written objection may be deemed to 20 constitute consent to entry of an order approving the sale.

21 PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Motion has been filed with the clerk of 22 the Court and may be viewed at the clerk's office located at 1415 State Street, Santa Barbara,
23 California 93101. A copy of the Motion may also be obtained by contacting counsel for the 24 Debtor, Dean G. Rallis Jr. of Hahn & Hahn LLP, by email at drallis@hahnlawyers.com or by 25 phone at (626) 796-9123.
